To the Custard Factory

From Birmingham New Street Station & Moor Street Station

Bus Services: 13 / 17/37 / 58/ 50/ 97 and 97A.

Walking:

From Birmingham New Street

Head towards the Bull Ring Shopping centre. This is opposite the main entrance to the station at where Five Guys burgers, All Bar One and Oliver Bonos shop.

Outside of the Station you will see Bull Ring Shopping Centre you front of you. Make your way to the lower ground floor of the shopping centre. going down the stairs or escalators to the bottom level.

Walk away from Debenhams and towards Selfridges (at the opposite end of the centre), turn right at Costa (about half way through the centre on the right) and go past Greggs out through the bank of glass doors (Pizza Hut will be on the left, Nando's on the right) towards St. Martins Church. Walk to the left of St Martins Church towards the traffic lights.

Cross at the traffic lights and then keep walking straight down this road in front of you. (As you walk down BVSC and ADAGIO hotel will be on the left, PAUSE service is on the right)

You will walk past Digbeth Coach Station on your right. Other landmarks close by are The Irish Centre Connaught Rooms (on the right) and South & City College Birmingham (on the left) as you progress past the Coach Station.

The outside of Zellig Building is on the left-hand side of the road. It has graffiti of a giant neck tie, this is the building that we are in. The Custard Factory and Zellig are large white buildings.

When you enter the building follow the signs to Zellig Reception. The Zellig reception is next to a glass bridge structure. It has a large glass front, and there are chairs inside where you can wait.

From Moor Street Station

Keep walking straight down this road in front of you. (As you walk down BVSC and ADAGIO hotel will be on the left, PAUSE service is on the right)
